THE ROAD BACK TO GREENSBORO

Thursday's preseason game against the Predators will mark the Hurricanes' first appearance in Greensboro since 1999. After relocating to North Carolina in 1997, the franchise called the Greensboro Coliseum home for its first two seasons (1997-98 and 1998-99) while its new arena in Raleigh was under construction. At the time, the Coliseum's capacity of more than 21,000 for hockey made it the NHL's largest arena. During their two seasons in Greensboro, the Hurricanes posted their first winning season and playoff appearance since 1992, while also capturing the newly formed Southeast Division by eight points for their second division title in franchise history. The team moved to its new Raleigh home in 1999.

THE ROOKIES...

-- Bradly Nadeau and Justin Robidas both extended their preseason point streaks following Tuesday's home game against Florida. Nadeau scored his second goal of the 2026 preseason, and the game-deciding goal in shootout, and has now recorded at least one point in five consecutive preseason appearances spanning the 2025 and 2026 preseasons, totaling five goals and two assists in seven career preseason games with the Hurricanes.

-- Robidas also found the scoresheet with a goal, giving him three points (2g, 1a) through the 2026 preseason. He has now registered at least one point in four straight preseason appearances dating back to the 2025 preseason, including a multi-point performance against Florida on Sept. 20, 2026, and has totaled seven points (3g, 4a) in five career preseason games with the Hurricanes.

AND THE VETS

-- Jackson Blake posted 53 points (22g, 31a) in 81 games, setting career highs in points, goals and assists during his second NHL season. He also registered a career-long six-game point streak (4/2-4/13: 1g, 7a) and tied for second on the club with 19 even-strength goals. Blake posted a goal and an assist in SCF Game 6 to become the first player in Hurricanes/Whalers franchise history to record seven multi-point games in a single postseason, breaking a tie with Matt Cullen (6 in 2006).

-- Taylor Hall recorded 18 goals and 30 assists (48 points) last season, his highest total in goals, assists and points since posting 61 points (20g, 41a) with the Boston Bruins in 2021-22. In the Stanley Cup playoffs, he finished second on the team in points (19) and finished with a League-best and franchise record 12 points on go-ahead goals (5-7—12).

-- Logan Stankoven recorded a career-high 44 points (21g, 23a) in 81 games, setting new personal bests in both points and goals. He closed the regular season on a career-long eight-game point streak (3/31-4/14: 7g, 4a). Additionally, he recorded 11 goals during the 2026 Playoffs, ranking second in Hurricanes/Whalers franchise history for most goals in a single postseason, just one shy of matching Rod Brind'Amour's franchise-record of 12 goals in 2006.

-- Frequently called the Hurricanes' best line by Head Coach Rod Brind'Amour, Blake (7g, 13a), Hall (7g, 12a) and Stankoven (11g, 5a) combined for 55 points over Carolina's 19 games during the 2026 Stanley Cup Playoffs. The Hurricanes scored 16 goals in potential series-clinching games this year, winning all four they played, with at least one of Hall, Blake and/or Stankoven factoring on 10 of those tallies (62.5%) – 10-12—22 combined (Hall: 3-6—9; Blake: 4-3—7; Stankoven: 3-3—6).

ENTER KHAZHEYEV

Ruslan Khazheyev is in the lineup for the first time this preseason. The 22-year-old enters his third professional season after continuing to gain experience throughout the Hurricanes' system. Selected by Carolina in the fifth round, 158th overall, in the 2023 NHL Draft, Khazheyev spent most of the 2025-26 season with the Greensboro Gargoyles, appearing in 41 games and posting a 3.52 GAA, .894 SV% and one shutout. In his first professional season in 2024-25, he appeared in 20 AHL games with Chicago, compiling a 5-13-0 record with a 3.49 GAA and .876 SV%.

RECORD-BREAKING, CUP-WINNING

-- The Hurricanes set several NHL and franchise benchmarks throughout their Stanley Cup Final run. Brandon Bussi became the first goaltender in NHL history to make his first two career playoff starts in the Stanley Cup Final and win both, then recorded a Stanley Cup-clinching shutout in Game Six – becoming the third goaltender in NHL history, and first in nearly 90 years, to accomplish the feat in his first NHL season.

-- Carolina scored three goals in 39 seconds in Game Three, the fastest three-goal stretch in Stanley Cup Final history and became just the second team to erase a four-goal deficit in a Final. The Hurricanes also won eight consecutive postseason overtime games dating back to the 2025 First Round, establishing a franchise record, and scored at least four goals in each of the first five games of the Final, becoming just the second team in Final history to do so.

-- Jordan Staal tied the NHL record with goals in five consecutive Stanley Cup Final games, while Nikolaj Ehlers become just the second player in the past 34 years to record consecutive three-point games in a Final. Jackson Blake set a franchise record with seven multi-point games in a single postseason, while Sebastian Aho became the fifth player in NHL history with eight consecutive 10-point postseasons.

ROD ALMIGHTY

Since taking over as Carolina's head coach in 2018-19, Rod Brind'Amour has posted a 378-182-56 record, giving him the highest points percentage (.659) and second-most wins of any Whalers/Hurricanes bench boss. Brind'Amour recorded his fourth 100-point season as an NHL head coach in his eighth season. Only five head coaches in NHL history have recorded more 100-point campaigns through their first eight seasons: Ken Hitchcock (6), Glen Sather (6), Mike Bacock (6), Bruce Boudreau (5) and Fred Shero (5). Brind'Amour has now guided the team to the playoffs in each of his first eight seasons behind the bench, making him the only active coach to accomplish the feat. Before his coaching tenure, the team clinched just five playoff berths over its first 20 season in North Carolina. The Hurricanes are the only NHL team to win a playoff series in each of the last seven campaigns and are one of five teams in NHL history with a series win in seven consecutive postseasons. Brind'Amour has matched Pat Burns as the second coach in league history to win a playoff series in each of his first seven seasons. He has also played or coached in 86 of Carolina's 88 playoff wins since relocation.
