DEFENSEIVE DUO

Sean Walker scored his fourth goal of the season to lead all Carolina defensemen, while Jalen Chatfield netted his third, tied for second among Hurricanes defensemen. This marks the third time this season that two Hurricanes defensemen have scored in the same game. The previous instances came in a 9-2 win over Chicago (Nov. 7), with Alexander Nikishin and Shayne Gostisbehere scoring, and a 7-0 win over Winnipeg (Nov. 1), with Juuso Valimaki and Sean Walker (2g) finding the net.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

-- Andrei Svechnikov scored his 194th and 195th career goals, moving within one of tying Geoff Sanderson for ninth in franchise history, while also recording his 57th career power-play goal (two shy of tying Ray Ferraro for 10th) and his 154th career power-play point (two shy of tying Pat Verbeek for sixth). He also recorded his 29th career multi-goal game, tying Jeff O'Neill for 10th-most in franchise history.

-- Sebastian Aho scored his 323rd career goal to surpass Eric Staal for sole possession of second place on the franchise's all-time goals list, behind Ron Francis (382), while becoming the all-time goals leader in Carolina Hurricanes history. He also recorded his 147th career power-play assist on Svechnikov's goal, tying Eric Staal for second-most in franchise history, and tallied his 190th career multi-point game. He recorded his 58th career three-point game (1-2—3) and surpassed Aleksander Barkov (57 GP) for the fourth most by a Finnish player in NHL history – a list topped by Jari Kurri (164 GP). Aho also scored his franchise-record-extending 71st career game-winning goal.

STAAL-ING THE SHOW

With an assist on Chatfield's goal, Jordan Staal (0-1—1) recorded his 500th career point with the Hurricanes, joining his brother Eric Staal (775) in reaching the milestone with the club. They are the fifth set of brothers in NHL history to each record 500-plus points with the same franchise.

POINT TAKEN

Alexander Nikishin scored the Hurricanes' third power-play goal of the game, with Taylor Hall earning his second point of the contest for his third multi-point outing of the season. Carolina improved to 6-0-0 when Hall records a point this season. Mark Jankowski also added an assist, extending the Hurricanes' perfect record to 10-0-0 in games in which he records a point.

STORM SURGE

-- The Hurricanes lead the NHL with six games of 6+ goals and four games of 7+ goals, maintaining a perfect record in both scenarios. Carolina has scored seven goals four times this season, two more than any other team.

-- The Hurricanes scored five goals in the second period, tying for the second-most goals in a single period in franchise history. Carolina has accomplished the feat 12 other times, most recently in the second period of a 7-4 win over Columbus on Jan. 23, 2025. Carolina and Edmonton combined for seven goals in the second period, matching the most in a single frame this season. The others: Ducks-Blues (P3 on Nov. 17), Stars-Capitals (P2 on Nov. 3) and Oilers-Canucks (P2 on Oct.1).

-- All five Hurricanes skaters who entered the game with active point streaks against the Oilers extended their runs: Shayne Gostisbehere recorded two assists for eight points (2g, 6a) over his last six games; Jackson Blake (3g, 2a), Nikolaj Ehlers (2g, 3a) and Logan Stankoven (1g, 4a) each have five points over their last four games; and Jordan Staal has recorded three points (2g, 1a) over his last three contests.
-- Carolina improved to 17-3-3 on the season and 8-1-2 over its last 11 games, tying Edmonton for second-most points in the NHL with 37, while five Hurricanes skaters recorded multiple points.
-- Carolina handed Edmonton its first regulation loss of the season when scoring first, dropping the Oilers to 15-1-2 in those games. The Hurricanes improved to 4-2-2 when their opponent scores first this season.

CANIAC CROWD

With tonight's game, the Carolina Hurricanes extended their streak to 178 consecutive regular-season and playoff sellouts at Lenovo Center, dating back to Feb. 24, 2023. Carolina's standing-room only crowd of 19,250 on opening night represented the largest attendance for a regular-season home game at Lenovo Center. Only two regular-season home games in franchise history have drawn more fans: the team's Stadium Series outdoor game against the Washington Capitals at Carter-Finley Stadium on Feb. 18, 2023 (56,961) and a game at the Greensboro Coliseum against the New York Rangers on Nov. 21, 1997 (19,358). The team sold out all 41 home games during the 2025-26 season. The Hurricanes first sold out every home game in franchise history during the 2023-24 season, averaging 18,819 fans per game, including standing-room attendance. Following renovations to Lenovo Center during the summer of 2026, the arena's seated capacity will be 18,800 for the 2026-27 hockey season.
